Director's Message

I hope you get a sense of how busy we've been and how excited we are to share with you our late spring and summer reading program offerings. This summer RPL is celebrating Season's Readings—a year of seasons, celebrations and programs packed into just 6 fun-filled weeks. Whether you or your kiddos enjoy the crafts, the big opening program, the books or the prizes, we have something for everyone. Sign ups begin May 22 and is open for any aged individual. We want to invite all of our young patrons to our opening event held in Discovery Park Wednesday, May 31st, from 10 am-noon. Many of our closest community partners will man a "season booth" that includes books, crafts, science experiments and games that look at the seasonal calendar, growing food and the weather. So much is going on in the next few months so be sure to take a look at the calendar insert on page 4 to find the programs you'd like to participate in this summer.

Last Summer at the Golden Hotel by Elyssa Friedland

A family in the Catskills brings hilarity and nostalgia when two clans convene for the summer at their beloved getaway. In its heyday, the Golden Hotel was the crown jewel of the hotter-than-hot Catskills vacation scene. For more than sixty years, the Goldman and Weingold families—best friends and business partners—have presided over this glamorous resort, which served as a second home for the well-heeled guests and celebrities. But the Catskills are not what they used to be—and neither is the relationship between the Goldmans and the Weingolds. As the facilities and management begin to fall apart, a tempting offer to sell forces the two families together again to make a heart-wrenching decision. Long-buried secrets emerge, new dramas and financial scandal erupt, and everyone from the traditional grandparents to the millennial grandchildren wants a say in the hotel's future.
